The Booker Washingtop high school of Sapulpa appeared at the Dreamland theatre Tuesday night, Feb. 12, in a drama entitled, "Dot's Conversion." The play was composed by Miss Hazel B. McDaniel. The theme is patriotic; the diction shows the earmarks of a promising writer. The masterful way in which the high school pupils presente dthe plot renders them worthy of much praise. The play was brought here under the auspices of Booker Washington high school of this city, by the management of Coach Lane.

PYTHIANS PURCHASE SITE

Chleago, III., Feb. 7-Looking forward to the erection of a national Pythian Building in this city at an early date, the Knights of Pythias purchased a valuable lot at 37th Place and State street at a cost of

The purchase made through Supreme Attorney S. A. T. Watkins who was assisted by Grand Chancel tor A. A. Wesley, Major R. R. Jackson and Edward D. Green. Supreme Chancellor S. W. Green is giving the Pythians a business as well as a financial administration. It was under his administration that a valuable piece of property was purchased in Chicago sometime ago. This has paid for itself and is now giving to the order a revenue. The earnings of the present property will help pay for the lots just purchased.
